Orientation Location:

Orientations start in the LOWER CLASSROOM of the Barnes Range House on the property of the AGC. See map below.

Orientation Description

The orientation usually takes about 1.5 to 2 hours. It consists of a video presentation, Question and Answer session and a walking tour of the AGC facility. You will be required to read and sign the AGC affidavit, provide picture identification, complete the HRPC application, provide an NRA member number (or complete NRA application if not already a member) and pay the applicable fees. When completed, you will be issued a Homewood Rifle and Pistol Club member card, HRPC patch, HRPC window cling, and an Empty Chamber Indicator (ECI).

Directions to AGC

The orientation starts in the lower classroom of the Barnes Range House on the property of the AGC. Directions to the AGC and Orientation: The Barnes Range house is accessible from Wards Chapel Road (the road just past "AGC Lane" on Marriottsville Road when coming from Interstate 70.) It is located on the south end of the parking lot. The Associated Gun Clubs of Baltimore address is 11518 Marriottsville Road, Marriottsville, MD 21104.
